Great Start to RS Year!

We have started the religious school year on a good positive note.

I hope you found the two Sunday gatherings we have experienced commemorating September 11 and celebrating Temple Beth David's 50th anniversary as worthwhile as I did. Each was meaningful and uplifting. The delicious Sisterhood and Brotherhood sponsored barbecue also exceeded my culinary expectations.

Family Programs Begin this Sunday with Janet Liss' 6th Grade

On September 25, we kick off our family class programs. The theme of this specific intergenerational learning experience will be "Transitional Moments: The Bar & Bat Mitzvah". It starts at 9:00am in the synagogue foyer.

Special Brotherhood Brunch and Program this Sunday

Contact Scott Telford at (714) 904-3106 or weintal@hotmail.com to reserve your place for this Sunday's Brotherhood sponsored brunch. It takes place during religious school at 9:30am in the Social Hall. Adam Cherter, author of the hilarious memoir S'Mother, will be the featured presenter.

Two Important Requests

1. Please check your religious school calendar for the Sunday date when you are expected to learn with your son or daughter. Your attendance and participation are keys to the success of our family programs.
2. Religious School starts on Sundays at 9:00am sharp. I am a parent myself. I know how hectic our schedules as parents are. We only have 2 1/2 hours on Sunday and up to 4 1/2 hours on Tuesday of religious school time with your children. We want to take advantage of every minute. We also want to start every Sunday session on a smooth positive note. Your efforts getting your sons and daughters here on time are more than appreciated.

A Wish List Needed!

If you have a digital camera and will be participating in a religious school program or synagogue event, don't hesitate to bring it with you. We are always looking for worthwhile pictures of the people and emotions that capture our memories together.

Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchat Torah are coming up soon. Make sure to check the Megillah and synagogue e-mails for the times when all the holidays take place. L'shanah Tovah!
