L'Shanah Tovah!

We want to wish a good sweet year to all Temple Beth David Religious School students, parents and families.

This Sunday, October 2, there will be two activities going on in addition to religious school classes.

1. Temple Beth David's Red Cross Blood Drive. If you are able, it is a great mitzvah to donate. You can sign up in advance by contacting Cathy Neiderman at (714) 826-4374 or at www.RedCrossBlood.org using the sponsor code: TBD. Space is also usually available if you do not get a chance to sign up in advance.
2. Education committee Meeting, Synagogue Library, 10:30-11:30am. Andrew Cohen, father of Sasha in our kindergarten, is Temple Beth David's new Education Vice-President. In this position, Andrew serves as our religious school's representative to the synagogue's board of directors. Agenda items will include a new proposal on how our religious school will celebrate Purim this year. A Director's report on the present state of our religious school will also be given. Parents or congregation members wanting to be a religious school supporter and advocate and wanting to have in-put on the future policy direction of our school are welcome to attend.
